Hi everyone! The TSCH is back for another season of great evenings of music and spoken word. We hope you will join us!

THE MILL STREET DUO was formed in 2019. Songwriter Rick Ventrella has been playing guitar and writing songs for more than 20 years. Sandra McNeill, on ukulele, and back-up vocals, has a long music background from home, formal education, choirs and musical theatre. The duo connected with Railroad Recording Company in Chesterville in 2021 to record a CD called Chapter 6, culminating with a CD release at Vibration Studios in Osgoode. Rick's songwriting covers a gamut of styles from folk, gospel and a little bit of country, to fun, upbeat and positive songs. The duo continues to write and record. You can find them on Spotify, iTunes and YouTube.

IAN HANCHET is a graduate of the Jazz program at Concordia University and the Music education program at McGill University. He has dedicated his life to music performance, music education, and music therapy. Recently he scaled back his teaching to concentrate primarily on writing and performing music in intimate settings. Ian's solo act includes his originals as well as standards in the style of Ella Fitzgerald & Joe Pass and Chet Baker, and great songs by some of his favourite artists, including Bruce Cockburn, Bob Dylan, Neil Young, Jesse Winchester, Joni Mitchell and Gordon Lightfoot. At The Tilted Steeple Ian will be accompanied by violinist Jeff Deeprise, a member of his group Tumbleweed. Ian has many albums to his credit. Check out his music on Apple Music, Bandcamp and YouTube.

Zoë Richardson, who was to appear this month, is unable to attend and is being rescheduled to a later date. Instead, Tilted Steeple organizer and host Isabelle Delage and her singing partner Sam Moss will play a set, drawing from their 2021 album Isabelle & Sam – The Lockdown Sessions, along with some new material.

Beverages and snacks are available by donation, coordinated by the Anglican Parish of South Dundas to benefit its outreach activities.
