Hi Folks!

Welcome to the Tilted Steeple Coffee House's fifth season! We have another full roster of great talent for you this year and we hope you will come out and enjoy it with us. Doors open at 6:45 pm.

Born in Ottawa in 1994, CONNERY BROWN was raised in the Seaway Valley. With a great musical talent inherited from his mother, local singer and pianist Margaret Whisselle, Connery heard the sounds of The Beatles at a young age and never turned back. Gifted on the guitar, bass and drums, he is a singer and guitarist with the rock group Mortal Mother. He is currently recording music for his solo project, Sweet & Sour Flower Power, an Indie Rock and Psychedelic Pop album scheduled for release by the end of 2019.

MARGARET REID and CHRIS ROWNTREE have, by ingenious use of the Internet and social media, formed a transatlantic partnership to perform a collection of duets around their favourite songs – some lyrical and others amusing. They will be accompanied by Margaret's daughter, Frances, on the recorder and by a special guest on the tambourine. They are no strangers to TSCH audiences and their coming together like this was first intimated some two years ago when Margaret collared Chris to sing with her at one of Singer-songwriter and TSCH host ISABELLE DELAGE, together with SAM MOSS, will try out their latest efforts. A little taste of country this time!

CLAUDE PLAMONDON, or Plum as he is known to his friends, has been playing music for a long time. In his youth he played in a Cornwall band called Village, where he learned to love and work out harmonies. Later on as a full-time musician, Claude and his music partner Bob Flynn travelled wherever the music took them, from the Ottawa Valley, Quebec and surrounding areas, to Virginia, West Virginia, Washington and the CBC studio. In 1990, Claude and his wife Andrea went to Japan where he played with a bluegrass band and wrote songs. On his return, Claude and a friend, Jeanne Ward, started Easy Pickins, a band that played locally. For his Tilted Steeple show, Claude will be presenting all original songs, accompanied by two very talented musicians and best of friends Claude Clement and Claude Champagne. We are thrilled to welcome "The Three Claudes" back to our stage!

We hope to see you there!
