Hi Folks! This month the Tilted Steeple Coffee House presents a brand-new slate of guests!

TERRY and LAURA BACHYNSKI are a couple of Edmonton based singer-songwriters currently touring across Canada. They will each do a set, with a bit of mutual collaboration.

Terry likes to tell stories with his music. His folk/roots songs encourage his audience to participate and enjoy the ride. Much of his music is based on real-life experiences of the everyday which we can all relate to, or current news items which reflect the world in which we live. Terry's music can be visceral, funny, relevant or romantic. Whatever the subject matter, it is all-Canadian, all the way. His Greatest Hits album is his first album....and that's the joke of it. Hey, why waste time recording songs that are not hits?

Words On A Page is Laura's third album of original music. Her music can be characterized as inspirational, but she does not shy away from many subjects that society struggles with, including cancer, social justice, mortality, healing, and how faith in ourselves and something bigger can strengthen and carry us through difficult times. She often writes about the power of hope and love and her music asks the listener to dig deep to find meaning in the challenges of life.

GLENNA MCCONNELL's musical tastes and style can be traced to growing up with her friends and family's love of folk, country, pop and rock music. Her love of poetry and singing in choirs led her to write songs and plays. Her passion for singing and signing began when she interpreted for her deaf grandmother and while teaching her deaf students. Glenna performed solo and in the band Folkus, becoming a regular at The Yellow Door, The Side Door Coffee House and Rasputin's in Ottawa. She has had many opportunities to perform her original music with full bands from Quebec to California. Glenna is from Châteauguay, Quebec

PLAIN FOLK is back this month with its usual mix of humour and music. The quartet, made up of Tilted Steeple host Isabelle Delage on guitar and vocals, Montreal bandmates Mick Perreux on guitar, mandolin, banjo, and Val Teodori on bass and accordion, along with latest local addition Sam Moss, will close the show and get the audience singing.

SAVE THE DATE!

Tilted Steeple Productions is delighted to bring a Christmas symphony concert to Morrisburg again this year in aid of local fundraising initiatives.

A Classical Christmas

Sunday, December 1 at 3 p.m.

This time around we present Sinfonia de l'Ouest, one of Montreal's finest chamber orchestras, under the direction of Stewart Grant. The concert will feature noted Montreal soprano Kerry-Anne Kutz in a finely crafted Christmas program that includes works by Mozart, Corelli, Handel and more.

Again this year we are putting together a group of singers to perform Handel's Hallelujah Chorus with the orchestra. Everyone is invited to join us for rehearsals – details to be announced. If you are planning to attend the concert and would like to join this impromptu choir, please sign up by email at tiltedsteeple@eastlink.ca.

Concert tickets are $25 for adults / $15 for children and students, and will be available at the Tilted Steeple, from Bob Ruddock or Isabelle delage, or at the Seaway Valley Pharmachoice in Morrisburg.
