This month:

- Three for the Show
- Zoë Robertson
- Plain Folk +

This month we feature some new and returning guests from near and far. Please join us!

THREE FOR THE SHOW is a trio made up of Ken Julien, Cholly Boland and Anne Lyon. Hailing from Kemptville, Ken is a singer-songwriter as well as an avid hunter and arborist. He is currently recording a CD of his original songs. Cholly comes from a music-teaching family and has played in bands and sung in choirs for many years, performing at such events as the Ole Towne Hall Christmas Show and the Dairyfest Gospel Fest. Anne has worked as a nurse and Pastoral Care Coordinator. A member of the Good News Singers Music Ministry for 20 years, she has recorded two Gospel CDs.

ZOË ROBERTSON is a singer-songwriter and artist from Oka, Quebec by way of Montreal. Since 2011, she has performed dozens of shows, from North Bay, ON to Edmunston, NB, with many stops along the way. She has released four albums of original music, most recently in May of 2023. These songs were performed with her band from 2011-2015, but didn't find a home in an album until now. Her lyrics are introspective, philosophical, often dark, and sometimes funny (these days the songs are very frequently about birds!). She's a folkie at heart, and a storyteller for life. You can listen to all her songs, and take a look at her artwork at www.zoevsrobots.com

Your host group PLAIN FOLK (Isabelle Delage, Sam Moss, Mick Perreux & Val Teodori) is back this month, accompanied by a couple of special guests! Isabelle's daughters, Blanche Israël (cello) and Justine Israël (violin) are joining us from Halifax and Montreal respectively to perform some of the tunes recorded in recent years.

Beverages and snacks are available by donation, coordinated by the Anglican Parish of South Dundas to benefit its outreach activities.

The Tilted Steeple Coffee House is organized in aid of Martha's House Community Hub and Warming Centre in Morrisburg and Community Food Share. All performers donate their time and talent.
