This month:

- Martin Callan
- Bruce (Liam) Ciccarelli
- Plain Folk

This month's edition falls on St. Patrick's Day, so we will be giving our show a bit of an Irish flair!

MARTIN CALLAN is a business development manager for a local electronics manufacturing company. He lives in Cornwall with his biggest fan, Anne, and their two children. Martin is also a passionate photography hobbyist. First performing in front of a crowd at church at the age of 12, Martin continues to play music to this day in his hometown, where he leads music in two parishes. His musical tastes run from classical to rock, but folk, easy listening, Christian, French and his own compositions make up his repertoire, which he has gladly shared with family and friends for years.

We are pleased to welcome BRUCE (LIAM) CICCARELLI for his third TSCH appearance. Bruce is an indie singer-songwriter of spiritual/inspirational folk who can be found playing cover tunes in a pub or chillaxing with soft ballads in an intimate setting. He is inspired to write music based on the philosophy that music touches our emotions, and emotions are the language of the soul. Bruce has recorded several CDs and is finishing his newest release, Awaken. All of his music is currently on FREE download on his website. Find out more at www.BruceLiam.com.

To celebrate St. Paddy's Day, TSCH's "house band" PLAIN FOLK, made up of Isabelle Delage, Mick Perreux and Val Teodori, will finish off the evening with a set of Irish, Scottish and English tunes.

Come sing along!

Beverages and snacks are available by donation, coordinated by the Anglican Parish of South Dundas to benefit its outreach activities.
