We hope you will join us for another evening of great music!

BRUCE CALLAN is retired and lives on Hoople Creek Bay with his wife Rosemary and their daughter Caitlyn. Bruce enjoys performing at area Open Mics and, along with his bandmates from the Glengarry Ramblers, hosts a monthly Open Mic evening in Cornwall. Bruce has written a number of songs, getting musical influences from the Folk and Americana genres and from artists such as John Prine, Guy Clark and Jerry Jeff Walker, to name a few. He likes to tell stories that are influenced by where he lives, his family, personal experiences and by life observations and the quirks of life.

MARTIN CALLAN is a business development manager for a local electronics manufacturing company. This grandfather of two beautiful granddaughters lives in Cornwall with his biggest fan, his wife, Anne. Martin is also a passionate photography hobbyist. First performing in church at the age of 12, Martin continues to play music to this day in his hometown, where he leads music at a local parish and performs at open mics. His musical tastes run from classical to rock, but folk, easy listening, Christian, French and his own compositions make up his repertoire, which he has gladly shared with family and friends for years.

If all goes according to plan, TSCH hosts ISABELLE & SAM (that's Isabelle Delage and Sam Moss) will play the set they had to postpone last month due to Isabelle's laryngitis. The duo will draw a few tunes from their CD The Lockdown Sessions released in 2021, plus some new material they have lately been working on.

The Anglican Parish of South Dundas hosts a special fundraising event on April 27. Get your tickets now!

Beverages and snacks are available by donation, coordinated by the Anglican Parish of South Dundas to benefit its outreach activities.

The Tilted Steeple Coffee House is organized in aid of Martha's House Community Hub and Warming Centre in Morrisburg and Community Food Share. All performers donate their time and talent.
