KAYLEIGH STYLES is a 15 year-old singer from Greely, Ontario. She is in the vocal program at Canterbury High School. Kayleigh has been singing and acting since the age of six, and enjoys performing pop and musical theatre. She has sung the anthem several times at sporting events, including for the Ottawa 67s and the Ottawa Fury. She has seven original songs to her name, two of which have been released on iTunes and Spotify. Kayleigh loves animals, horseback riding and spending time with her friends. A participant in La Voix Junior in Montreal in 2017, she loves performing for audiences young and old.

BRUCE CALLAN lives in Ingleside with his wife Rosemary. Prior to his retirement in 2014 Bruce worked as a Power Plant Inspector for the Province of Ontario. Following retirement Bruce and Rosemary have travelled through the southern U.S. as well as Iceland, England, India, Thailand and Hawaii. Bruce's main early musical influences, such as John Prine and Guy Clark, have become Americana artists. Bruce has written a few of his own tunes and enjoys performing at open mics when he gets the opportunity. He currently co-hosts a regular open mic in Cornwall at the Stomping Grounds Bistro.

CAMIL LAPOINTE is a Blues and Rock'n Roll guitarist from Cornwall, Ontario. He credits a variety of guitarists for influencing his playing style, including George Thorogood, BB King and Ry Cooder. He has played with numerous bands over the years including Gypsy, Rapunzel's Tower and Jaw Slinky. Currently, he is enjoying the soulful sounds of a three-piece horn section with Mr. C and the Hometown Horns. He is equally at home as a solo performer, enjoying the intimacy of smaller venues and the ability to share a story with his audiences..

PLAIN FOLK is back this month with its usual mix of humour and music. The trio, made up of Tilted Steeple host Isabelle Delage on guitar and vocals and her Montreal bandmates Mick Perreux on guitar, mandolin, banjo and vocals, and Val Teodori on bass, accordion and vocals, will close the show and get the audience singing.
