Hi everyone! We hope you can join us in our new venue for an extra-special evening of music!

VOICES THREE

This month, Tilted Steeple Coffee House organizer and host Isabelle Delage gets to indulge one of her passions: singing in a female trio! She and fellow Seaway Valley Singers Annette McRae and Mary-Jo Rosenquist all began their musical journeys in the same way: on a piano bench long before their feet could touch the floor. ☺

Isabelle switched to guitar in her late teens and joined the folk singer-songwriter scene. She is a long-time member of the Montreal group Plain Folk and co-founder of that city's long-running Side Door Coffee House. She has two solo albums and three collaboration CDs to her credit.

Annette studied oboe and played in the Ottawa Youth Orchestra. She taught recorder privately and in schools, and performed with the Calgary Renaissance Singers and Players. Prior to forming the concert promotion company Shantero Productions in 1979, Annette and her husband Terry performed as a folk duo.

Mary-Jo grew up in Morrisburg where, at the age of 16, she became the organist at Lakeshore Drive United Church, only the first of seven churches where she played this role in Montreal, Toronto and Orillia. She completed advanced music studies at McGill, U of T and the Royal Conservatory, and has had a distinguished career as a music teacher, music director, accompanist and chorister (Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, Cellar Singers).

VOICES THREE was formed specially for this performance at the TSCH.

Margaret Whisselle is a Queen's University BMus graduate who has been teaching private piano, vocal and theory lessons for many years in the South Dundas and Kemptville areas. She is the accompanist for both the Seaway Valley Singers and the Brockville Youth Opportunities in the Arts group. During the school year, Margaret is an accompanist and repertoire coach in the Music Theatre Performance Program at Brockville's St. Lawrence College. She performs often for shows and concerts in Brockville. She also acts as music director and organist at both Lakeshore Drive United Church and St. James Anglican Parish. Margaret will be joined on guitar by her son, Connery Brown, who is currently composing music for independent film productions

Montreal-based Jim Robinson is set to release his ninth CD next spring, a collection of songs his producer Jason Lang has referred to as "Contemporary Cinematic Jungian Alt-Folk City Cowboy Music." While his albums may live up to this kind of description, his live performances consistently aim to engage his audiences with singable choruses, foot tapping rhythms and memorable narratives, often tinged with a little humour and irony. Jim has been a regular on the TSCH stage over the years, and we're happy to welcome him back this fall, along with Susan Fowler on back-up vocals. Check out some of the songs on his website at www.jimrobinson.ca.

Beverages and snacks are available by donation, coordinated by the Anglican Parish of South Dundas to benefit its outreach activities.

The Tilted Steeple Coffee House is organized in aid of Community Food Share and other projects. All performers donate their time and talent. For more information visit the Tilted Steeple Coffee House website.
