This month:

- Randy Lacey
- Jim Robinson
- Paul Bullock
- Isabelle Delage & Sam Moss

This month's roster features return guests who are always a hit with our audience. See you there!

RANDY LACEY has been playing guitar for many years, mostly folk, rock and the blues. He particularly likes to play with others while sitting around a campfire or Christmas dinner while partaking of the fruits of the vine. Randy will be playing a rather varied set of old and new tunes - some will be familiar to most and some are rather obscure, but fun. He hopes that his onstage presence will bring out the inner boisterousness in everyone so that we can all have a good time together.

Last October Montreal-based JIM ROBINSON released his 8th CD, Nick Dean's Barn: an unexpected package in the mail, hockey on an outdoor rink, envy of the guy with the car in high school, playing for dancers at Nick Dean's Barn. "Like any live music venue," Jim says, "a dance hall carries far more meaning for the people who regularly gather and interact there than they realize at the time. When the barn itself burns down it rises again from the ashes and lives on in the memories of those who danced and played music there." Check out some of the songs on his website at www.jimrobinson.ca.

Paul Bullock is a retired engineer and high school teacher. In his spare time he acts as a Big Brother, pursues the hobby of Astronomy, gives guitar lessons, hosts a Music Jam class at the Sheppard's Welcome Centre, and Chairs Heritage Brockville. On the last Saturday of most months he organizes the "Saturday Night Live" Open Mic evening at Wall Street United Church in Brockville. Paul is a regular at the Tilted Steeple, both as a performer and as an audience member, and we are delighted to welcome him back to our stage.

This month TSCH host Isabelle Delage will be joined by Sam Moss for a few duets. And since Randy Lacey, who plays guitar on two of the songs featured on Isabelle's latest CD, Songs from My Little Couch, will be on hand, he will join her on stage to perform these two numbers.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to Easter, the April TSCH will be held on the fourth Friday, April 26.
