This month:

- Mudroom Melodies
- Æternal
- Plain Folk

Our last show of the season takes place on the fourth Friday due to Easter weekend. We're delighted to welcome back the following guests and we hope you will join us!

Mudroom Melodies is comprised of local residents Dawn and Mike Ouellette and their good friends, Margaret Reid and Rhonda Schneckenburger. They've sung for much of their adult lives in local choirs; and they direct, play and sing for their respective churches. This will be their second performance as a group, inspired by the Tilted Steeple! They recently re-assembled in Margaret's mudroom – hence their name – to prepare a new repertoire of their own arrangements. They will sing of the good things in life and they will revel in the joys of aging, both gracefully and, ahem, not-so-gracefully. We look forward to having them back on our stage!

Æternal marked 21 years of ministry in 2018. Over the years members have come and gone, but the message of unity through spirituality has remained the same, delivered through a blend of guitar, harmonica, percussion and a harmony of voices that has been likened to The Kingston Trio, Peter, Paul & Mary and The Eagles. But Æternal, which is made up of Daniel Garvin, Mike Amelotte, Paul Despault, Dieter Fernworn and their newest member, Lianne Brown, cannot be pigeonholed: they own their own sound. They continue to write new material and look forward to sharing their latest creations with all who wish to give a listen! This is the group's second visit to the Tilted Steeple Coffee House.
